Mr./Ms. Collector,

Your repeated telephone calls to the number [phone number] are in violation of the Fair Debt Collection Practices Act.

I have made it clear to your agency that the person you are trying to contact does not live at my address and is not associated with my phone number in any way. Therefore, I demand that you cease and desist all attempts to communicate with me in any fashion. If you do not respond to this request by ceasing and desisting all communication with me, I will report your activity to my State Attorney General, to the Federal Trade Commission, and, if necessary, to an attorney.
